A fleet of 36 chasers was sent to the Adriatic to co-operate with the cruisers Olympia and Birmingham and troyers in carrying out Amer Ica's role in the execution of the provisions of the armistice with Austria. The chasers are now at Marta for overhauling, but in the meantime the Greek government is making overtures for their purchase. They found their jobs filled by allens. One of the first plants viaited by the soldiers was that of the Swife Canadian company at Almwood, a suburb. After a near-riot they were promised that the aliens would be discharged within three days. The guarantee was given by the manager of the plant, the mayor and General Ketchen, who were called to the scene. The men then split into detachments, viaited many other establishments, eaforcing similar demands. Whenever an allen was seen by the soldiers he was chased and forced to kiss the flag.
